Nancy

Patricia Ganoas

I have a doll named Nancy
I always feed her peas,
She gets them on her face,
she gets them on her knees.

I clean her up and tell her that I think she's so sweet,
I give her some more peas, but she drops them on her feet.

Peas are not for Nancy,
I give her bread instead,
She won't eat a bit of it,
she puts it on her head.

I put some jam upon the bread,
I think oh what a treat,
But Nancy throws it in the air,
she glues it to her seat.

Nancy is a problem doll
I think I'll trade her in,
I'll get myself another doll,
I'll trade her for a him!!!

The air whistles by
As I contemplate
Your early demise
- I must seal your fate

I don't hate you
Not at all
It's just survival of the fittest
- And you're on my wall

You have your purpose
I do understand
But not in my house
- I must demand

Your crossed the line
When you crossed my door
So I must squash you
- heel to floor

Wicked insect
Eight-legged beast
Of all God's creatures
- I love you the least
